

Understanding Rules

Rules are special instructions for how people should behave. Rules keep us safe, create order, and show respect for others. There are rules in many places for children to follow. There are rules for homes, schools, libraries, parks, stores, and playgrounds. When rules are required by the government, they are called laws.

Look at the pictures below. Choose a rule from the box to match the picture. Write the letter on the blank line next to the number.
